

EDLESTON PRIMARY SCHOOL CHILD OF THE WEEK 2023/2024

Held on 17/11/23

|                                  |            |   |
|----------------------------------|------------|---|
| Mrs TomkinsonRT              | Pupil      | She is a superstar, she is interacting with her friends, fabulous at lunch times and she is a pleasure to have in class.  |
| Miss Heikkuri1H              | Zoya       | She has worked really hard in her English and maths improving her skills.   |
| Miss Fisher/Mrs Edge2F       | Katy Z     | Working hard and showing more independence in your maths. Keep in up!   |
|                                  |            |   |
| Mrs Spry3S                   | Noela      | You always help others to start their work, especially when they need help to get onto the computer. Well done!   |
| Miss Hutson4H                | Scarlett   | You missed some of a French lesson because you were working with Miss Begum. You completed the questions independently and correctly then helped other children. Tres Bien! |
| Miss Simpkin5S               | Ana        | For making great use of your phonics when reading and writing this week. Well done.   |
| Mrs Oliver6O                 | Charlie    | He has made such a huge improvement in his writing and effort in class. It is showing everyday.   |
| Miss ProcterHeadteacher      | Maja (Rec) | Wow!You're making so much progress! I love your 't' – they have improved so much and are clear! Lovely pressure too.  |
| Famous on a Friday – Michelle Y4 |            |   |
