

EDLESTON PRIMARY SCHOOL CHILD OF THE WEEK 2023/2024

Held on 24/11/23

| | | |
|-----------------------------------|-------------|--|
| Mrs Tomkinson RT | Pupil | Not only have you started to mark make you are also writing letters on your own. |
| Miss Heikkuri 1H | Kheil | She has been working really hard on Phonics, getting better and better each week. Well done. |
| Miss Fisher/Mrs Edge 2F | Katy D | Excellent listening and making steady improvement in your work. |
| | | |
| Mrs Spry 3S | Elsie | You listened really well in our Geography lesson and were able to draw your bar Chart accurately – and you helped others. Thank you and well done. |
| Miss Hutson 4H | Maria | Taking good care to check your work and doing really well with your times tables. |
| Miss Simpkin 5S | David | For two reasons! A great performance in guided reading all week and for being a wonderful partner in gymnastics. |
| Mrs Oliver 6O | Pupil | She has made a huge effort to take part in class discussions. It's lovely to hear your points of view. |
| Miss Procter Headteacher | Jaylon (Y3) | You are impressing me! I loved the writing you did recently – it was so interesting to read and neat. Keep up this effort and improving your attendance. |
| Famous on a Friday – Alessio (Y4) | | |

