3. Structure of the EYFS

At Edleston Primary School we have one class of up to 30 pupils, taught by a Qualified Teacher, one Teaching Assistant, an Additional Needs Assistant and one Apprentice.

Transition begins as soon as possible after places are allocated. The class teacher and/or teaching assistant visit most children in their pre-school setting before starting school. The children make afternoon visits in groups in July prior to starting school.

In September, there is a staggered intake in the first few days to allow children to settle in. After one week the children stay full time but if this causes any difficulties, the teacher and SENCo will discuss individual cases with the parents.

4. Curriculum

The Early Years Foundation Stage curriculum and Early Learning Goals refer to the children from birth to the end of the reception class. It sets a series of learning goals for children to work towards by the time they reach the end of EYFS at the age of 5+. For most children, the end of the reception year will be the end of the Early Years Foundation Stage, when the expectation is that most children will achieve the Early Learning Goals.

In the reception class, a high quality, well resourced, integrated early education will make a positive contribution to this distinct stage in a child's development with the key learning skills of listening, speaking, concentration, persistence, co-operation, literacy and numeracy.

Rich, stimulating and appropriate experiences will provide each child with opportunities to develop these skills, their competencies and their thinking to the best of their ability across all areas of learning.

The EYFS is based upon four principles:

- A Unique Child
- Positive Relationships
- Enabling Environments
- Learning and Development

A Unique Child

We strive for every child to become a competent learner who can be confident resilient, capable, and caring. We understand that all children are different and will develop in their own way and at their own rate. We acknowledge that children's attitudes and dispositions to learning are influenced by feedback from others; we use praise and encouragement, to support children to develop a positive attitude to learning.

We value the diversity of individuals within the school and understand our obligations under the Equality Act 2010. Consequently, all children and their families are valued equally within our school and given every opportunity to achieve their best.

In the EYFS we set realistic and challenging expectations that meet the needs of our children through:

- Planning opportunities that build upon and extend children's knowledge, experience and interests, and develop their self-esteem and confidence;
- Using a wide range of teaching strategies based on children's learning needs;
- Providing a wide range of opportunities to motivate and support children and to help them to learn effectively;
- Providing a safe and supportive learning environment in which the contribution of all children is valued;
- Using resources which reflect diversity and are free from discrimination and stereotyping;
- Planning challenging activities for children whose ability and understanding are in advance of their language and communication skills;
- Monitoring children's progress and taking action to provide support as necessary
- Providing experiences for all children, whatever their needs, which are inclusive rather than parallel.

Positive Relationships

We value the development of secure relationships to ensure that children learn to be confident and independent. We aim to build caring, respectful, professional relationships with the children and their families.

Enabling Environments

We recognise that the environment plays a key role in supporting and extending the children's development. This begins with a cycle of observing the children and assessing their interests, development and learning, before planning challenging but achievable activities and experiences to extend the children's learning.

A carefully structured curriculum based on the EYFS offers provision which takes account of the differing starting points. Please note children will be working from the age band that best fits the child's level of development and this does not necessarily reflect their chronological age. This provides a progression through to the end of the Reception year, laying the foundations for KS1.

The EYFS framework includes 7 areas of learning and development that are equally important and inter-connected. 3 areas, known as the prime areas, are seen as particularly important for igniting curiosity and enthusiasm for learning, and for building children's capacity to learn, form relationships and thrive.

The prime areas are:

- Communication and language
- Physical development
- Personal, social and emotional development

The prime areas are strengthened and applied through 4 specific areas:

- Literacy
- Mathematics
- Understanding the world
- Expressive arts and design

None of these areas are delivered in isolation from the others. They are equally important and depend on each other. All areas are delivered through a balance of adult led and child-initiated activities. For each area there are Early Learning Goals (ELG's), defined by the Early Years Framework, that define the expectations for children to reach by the end of the EYFS.

Characteristics of Effective Learning

At Edleston Primary we recognise that children learn in different ways and at different rates. The Early Years framework recognizes 3 distinct learning styles that we incorporate into our teaching.

Playing and exploring – (engagement) Finding out and exploring / Playing with what they know / Being willing to 'have a go'

Active Learning – (motivation) - Being involved and concentrating / Keeping trying / Enjoying achieving what they set out to do)

Creating and thinking Critically – (Thinking) Having their own ideas / making links / working with ideas

4.1 Planning

In partnership with parents, the school will promote the learning and development of children to ensure they learn and develop well, are kept healthy and safe and have the knowledge and skills they need to start school.

Our staff plan a curriculum firmly based on active learning to meet the needs of the individual child. When planning the early years curriculum, practitioners will:

- Consider the individual needs, interests, and development of each child in their care, and use this information to plan a challenging and enjoyable experience for each child in all areas of learning and development.
- Stimulate children's interests, responding to each child's emerging needs and guiding their development through warm, positive interactions coupled with secure routines for play and learning.
- Reflect on the different rates at which children are developing and adjust their practice appropriately.

If a child's progress in any prime area gives cause for concern, practitioners will discuss this with the child's parents and agree how to support the child. Staff will also consider whether a child may have a special educational need or disability which requires specialist support.

A high percentage of our children have a home language that is not English. Practitioners will:

- Take reasonable steps to provide opportunities for children to develop and use their home language in play and learning, supporting their language development at home.
- Ensure that children have sufficient opportunities to learn and reach a good standard in English language during the EYFS, ensuring children are ready to benefit from the opportunities available to them when they begin Year 1.

We will provide the children with time to become engrossed in what they are doing, to work in depth and to complete activities in order to develop positive attitudes to learning. Staff understand how young children learn and develop, in order to respond to them. Appropriate intervention helps children to become more involved in the learning process and provide opportunities for new learning and development, so that they can make progress.

4.2 Teaching

Each area of learning and development is implemented through planned, purposeful play, and through a mix of adult-led and child-initiated activities. Staff respond to each child's emerging needs and interests, guiding their development through warm, positive interaction.

As children grow older, and as their development allows, the balance gradually shifts towards more adult-led activities to help children prepare for more formal learning, ready for year 1.

5. Assessment

Formative assessment

This type of assessment informs everyday planning and is based on on-going observations and assessment of each child's achievements, interests and learning styles. Formative assessment may take the form of anecdotal observations, focused observations, baseline assessment, other focused assessments e.g. sound/number, annotated examples of work, photographs, video and information from parents.

Summative assessment

Children will be formally assessed on entry using the national Reception Baseline Assessment. This is an age-appropriate assessment of early mathematics and early literacy, communication and language. It is delivered in English and is administered within the first six weeks of a pupil starting reception. The assessment has two components, each consisting of practical tasks using physical resources. There is an online scoring system for the practitioner to use as the pupil engages with the tasks. Department for Education will use the data from the RBA to create school-level progress measures for primary schools, which will show the progress of pupils from reception until the end of key stage 2.

Teachers will then make formal assessments of progress against the Early Years Framework at the end of each term. At the end of the summer term a judgement will be made as to whether your child has reached 'a Good Level Of Development (GLD)'. At the end of the EYFS, staff complete the EYFS profile for each child. Pupils are assessed against the 17 early learning goals, indicating whether they are:

- Meeting expected levels of development
- Not yet reaching expected levels ('emerging')

The profile reflects ongoing observations, and discussions with parents and/or carers. The results of the profile are shared with parents and/or carers for their child.

GLD – Good level of development is when a pupil achieves the ELG in all prime areas and in Literacy and Numeracy in Specific areas.

The profile is moderated internally (referring to the Development Matters guidance) and in partnership with other local schools, to ensure consistent assessment judgements. EYFS profile data is submitted to the local authority upon request.

6. Inclusion

All children will be valued as individuals irrespective of their ethnicity, culture, religion, home language, background, ability or gender. The Equality Policy will ensure that the needs of all children are met, regardless of any protected characteristics they have.

The EYFS curriculum will be planned in order to meet the needs of the individual child and support them at their own pace.

The Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Policy will ensure all children receive the support they need and are given the best learning experience possible. SEND in the EYFS setting will be monitored and managed by the school's SENCO.

Children will be encouraged to develop a positive attitude towards people of different ethnic groups, cultures, beliefs, gender and ability.

7. The learning environment

The school recognises that the physical and emotional environment play an important role in supporting, enabling, and extending pupils' learning and development.

The school will provide a safe and stimulating environment that values active learning, exploration, and play, where children feel free to create, make links and develop critical thinking skills.

Early years practitioners will ensure that learning environments are well-organised and suitable for group, individual and whole class learning, with interactive displays and easily accessible resources utilised to encourage independence.

At all times, children will have access to indoor and outdoor learning environments. Staff will plan provision to ensure that there are a range of learning opportunities available, and that the learning opportunities available in the outdoor environment build on and develop those inside.

Independent learning will be encouraged through planned continuous provision where children can make their own selection from a variety of resourced areas, including:

Staff will support children to navigate and access the learning environment, intervening and interacting where necessary to ensure that all learning opportunities and teaching moments are captured and capitalised upon.

Appropriate and stimulating educational visits and visitors, from both within and outside of the local community, will be arranged to further expand children's learning experiences.

8. Safeguarding and welfare procedures

The school will take all necessary steps to keep children safe and well and comply with the requirements of the 'Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage' to:

- Safeguard children.
- Ensure the suitability of adults who have contact with children.
- Promote good health.
- Manage behaviour.
- Maintain records, policies, and procedures.

We follow Public Health England guidance on supervised toothbrushing to make sure that it is evidence-based and safe.

For added security, all parents are asked to provide a password for any person collecting their child.

Child protection

Staff will be alert to any issues of concern in the child's life at home or elsewhere. Any safeguarding or welfare issues will be dealt with in line with the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy, and all members of staff in the EYFS will be required to read this policy as part of their induction training.

The school DSL will be responsible for safeguarding children and liaising with local children's services as appropriate. The deputy DSL will undertake the duties of the DSL in their absence, but overall responsibility for safeguarding will remain with the DSL. The DSL and deputy DSL will undertake child protection training as required.

Staff will receive safeguarding training that enables them to understand the safeguarding policy and procedures, have up-to-date knowledge of safeguarding issues, and recognise signs of potential abuse and neglect.

The school will inform Ofsted of any allegations of serious harm or abuse of children by any person living, working, or looking after children at the premises as soon as is reasonably practicable, but at the latest within 14 days of the allegations being made.

The rest of our safeguarding and welfare procedures are outlined in our school's safeguarding and child protection policy.

9. Staffing

Suitable people

The school will ensure that it:

- Has effective systems in place to ensure that practitioners and those in regular contact with children within the setting are suitable to fulfil the requirements of their roles.
- Obtains an enhanced criminal records check in respect of every person aged 16 and over who works directly with children or works on the premises – additional criminal records checks will also be made for anyone who has lived or worked abroad.

- Discuss any issues, particularly concerning the development or wellbeing of children, including any child protection concerns.
- Identify solutions to address issues.
- Receive coaching to improve their effectiveness.

Staff:child ratios

Edeleston Primary School is aware that there are a range of contextual factors that will affect staff: child ratios, and that these can change depending upon a variety of issues. The school will continue to monitor the ratios and ensure that:

- The EYFS Lead holds an approved level 3 qualification or above and should have at least two years' experience of working in an early years setting or other suitable experience.
- Staffing arrangements meet the needs of all children and ensure their safety.
- Children are adequately supervised, including whilst eating, and decide how to deploy staff to ensure children's needs are met.
- They inform parents about staff deployment, and, when relevant and practical, aim to involve them in these decisions.

Suitable students on long term placements and volunteers aged 17 or over, and staff working as apprentices in early education aged 16 or over may be included in the ratios if the school is satisfied that they are competent and responsible.

The school will adopt the following staffing ratios:

- For children in Reception classes:
 - Class sizes will be limited to 30 children per school teacher.

Only under exceptional circumstances, and where the quality of care and safety of children is maintained, will changes be made to the ratios. Parents will be informed about staffing arrangements and, when relevant and practical, will be involved in staffing arrangement decisions.

Staff will not take photographs of bruising or injuries for child protection reasons. Instead, recording concerns forms and body maps will be used to record observations relating to child protection concerns – these can be acquired from the DSL.

School devices will not be taken off school premises without prior written permission from the headteacher. Where staff members have concerns over material on a school device, they will report all concerns to the DSL, following the procedures outlined in the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.

14. Working with parents and carers

We work in partnership with parents to enable a smooth and successful transition to Reception recognising that children learn and develop well when there's a strong partnership between staff and parents and/or carers.

We achieve this by:

- Talking to parents about their child before their child starts in our school.
- Giving children the opportunity to spend time with their teacher in the classroom with their parents before starting school.
- Inviting all parents to an induction meeting during the term before their child starts school.
- Visiting the children in their pre-school setting and holding discussions with pre-school staff.
- Parents are encouraged to talk to the child's teacher if there are any concerns.
- Parent's Evenings
- Phonics Meetings and regular opportunities for parents to read with their child in school.
- Each term parents receive a curriculum newsletter.
- Each child is assigned a key person who helps to ensure that their learning and care is tailored to meet their needs. The key person supports parents and/or carers in guiding their child's development at home. The key person also helps families to engage with more specialist support, if appropriate.
- Parents receive foundation stage profile report on their child's attainment and progress at the end of each school year.
- Encouraging parents to contribute observations and 'wow moments' via Tapestry.
- Meetings are undertaken by the EYFS staff and SENCO if necessary to discuss new intake children and approaches to teaching and learning.

15. Transition

The following process will be in place to ensure children's successful transition to Year 1:

- Parents will be invited to a meeting to ensure they know about school procedures and allocation of staff, and to voice any concerns they may wish to express.
- The children will be invited to a number of visits throughout the summer term to their Year 1 class. The first visits will be within their Reception classroom, allowing the children to feel secure in the new environment.
- In the Summer term, Reception and Year 1 staff will meet to discuss each child's development in order to support a smooth transition to Year 1.

16. Monitoring arrangements

It is the responsibility of the EYFS teacher to follow the principles stated in this policy.

There is a named Governor responsible for the EYFS. This governor will discuss EYFS practice with the practitioners and provide feedback to the whole governing body, raising any issues that require discussion.

Any changes made to this policy will be communicated to all relevant stakeholders.

All members of staff directly involved with the EYFS will be required to familiarise themselves with all processes and procedures outlined in this policy as part of their induction.

The Head teacher and subject co-ordinators will carry out monitoring on the EYFS as part of the whole school monitoring schedule.

This policy will be reviewed, shared and approved by the Governing Body annually.
