RESPONSIBILITY

ENJOYMENT

The 2014 Code of Practice says that:

A person has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her. At compulsory school age this means he or she has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others the same age, or, has a disability which prevents or hinders him or her from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools. (Taken from 2014 SEN Code of Practice: 0 to 25 years – introduction xiii and xiv)

1. Aims and objectives

Aims

Our special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) policy aims to:

- make sure our school fully implements national legislation and guidance regarding pupils with SEND;
- set out how our school will:
 - support and make provision for pupils with special educational needs and disabilities
 - provide pupils with SEND access to all aspects of school life so they can engage in the activities of the school alongside pupils who do not have SEND
 - help pupils with SEND fulfil their aspirations and achieve their best
 - help pupils with SEND become confident individuals living fulfilling lives
- explain the roles and responsibilities of everyone involved in providing for pupils with SEND;
- communicate with, and involve, pupils with SEND and their parents or carers in discussions and decisions about support and provision for the pupil;
- make sure the SEND policy is understood and implemented consistently by all staff.

➤ Objectives

➤ To achieve these aims we will:

- identify pupils with SEN and the nature of their need as early as possible;
- work in close partnership with parents/carers to achieve these aims through review meetings.
- determine any resource implications and establish whether they will be provided within school or through external sources;

- establish criteria and a program for monitoring, evaluating and reviewing the effectiveness of provision;
- work in close partnership with a range of specialist agencies to enable us to provide effective, targeted support;
- provide support, advice and training for all staff working with pupils with SEND to enable them to be increasingly able to adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils;
- To assist the governing body in fulfilling their duties regarding provision for pupils with SEN;
- appoint a qualified Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator (SENCo) who will have responsibility for the day-to-day operation of the SEND Policy and co-ordination of specific provision made to support individual pupils with SEND, including those who have Education and Health Care Plans (EHCPs).

2. Vision and values

All children within the school community are valued and respected and we are focused on creating an inclusive environment, where provision is tailored to the needs and abilities of pupils, no matter how varied. We will provide all pupils with access to a broad and balanced curriculum. Staff have high expectations for all pupils both academically and socially. Staff respect individual differences including the recognition of different learning styles, and thus a range of teaching strategies and approaches are employed. We have the highest aspirations and expectations for all pupils, including those with special educational needs/disabilities. We are committed to making sure all our pupils have the chance to thrive and supporting them to meet their full potential.

Inclusion at Edleston Primary School

At Edleston Primary School we believe that every child has the right to belong, participate and achieve.

We are committed to providing a continuum of support that enables pupils with SEND to access learning, develop independence and thrive within our school community.

Provision may include adaptations within the classroom, targeted interventions, support through our inclusion provision and access to specialist services where required.

Our aim is always to identify needs early, remove barriers to learning and ensure pupils experience success both academically and personally.

4. Definitions

4.1 Special educational needs

A pupil has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability that requires special educational provision to be made for them.

They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

- A significantly greater difficulty in learning than most others of the same age, or
- A disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools.

4.2 Disability

Pupils are considered to have a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to do normal daily activities.

The school will make reasonable adjustments for pupils with disabilities, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage compared with their peers.

4.3 The 4 areas of need

The needs of pupils with SEND are grouped into 4 broad areas. Pupils can have needs that cut across more than 1 area, and their needs may change over time.

Interventions will be selected that are appropriate for the pupil's particular area(s) of need, at the relevant time.

AREA OF NEED
Communication and interaction	Pupils with needs in this area have difficulty communicating with others. They may have difficulty understanding what is being said to them, have trouble expressing themselves, or do not understand or use the social rules of communication. Pupils who are on the autism spectrum often have needs that fall in this category.
Cognition and learning	Pupils with learning difficulties usually learn at a slower pace than their peers. A wide range of needs are grouped in this area, including: • Specific learning difficulties, which impact 1 or more specific aspects of learning, such as: dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia • Moderate learning difficulties • Severe learning difficulties • Profound and multiple learning difficulties, which is where pupils are likely to have severe and complex learning difficulties as well as a physical disability or sensory impairment

Social, emotional and mental health	Pupils with social, emotional wellbeing and mental health needs may have underlying difficulties or diagnoses. The school recognises that some pupils may experience mental health needs which impact upon learning, attendance and engagement. The school will work collaboratively with families and external agencies to provide appropriate support, recognising the close relationship between SEND, wellbeing and achievement.
Sensory and/or physical	Pupils with these needs have a disability that hinders them from accessing the educational facilities generally provided. Pupils may have: • A sensory impairment such as vision impairment, hearing impairment or multi-sensory impairment • A physical impairment • A sensory processing difficulty These pupils may need ongoing additional support and equipment to access all the opportunities available to their peers.

- With the SENCO, regularly review and evaluate the breadth and impact of the SEND support the school offers or can access, and co-operate with the LA in reviewing the provision that is available locally and in developing the local offer
- With the SENCO and teaching staff, identify any patterns in the school's identification of SEN, both within the school and in comparison, with national data, and use these to reflect on and reinforce the quality of teaching

5.5 Class teachers

Each class teacher is responsible for:

- Planning and providing high-quality teaching that is differentiated to meet pupil needs through a graduated approach
- The progress and development of every pupil in their class
- Working closely with any teaching assistants or specialist staff to plan and assess the impact of support and interventions, and consider how they can be linked to classroom teaching
- Working with the SENCO to review each pupil's progress and development, and decide on any changes to provision
- Ensuring they follow this SEND policy and the SEN information report
- Communicating with parents regularly to:
 - Set clear outcomes and review progress towards them
 - Discuss the activities and support that will help achieve the set outcomes
 - Identify the responsibilities of the parent, the pupil and the school
 - Listen to the parents' concerns and agree their aspirations for the pupil

5.6 Parents or carers

Parents or carers should inform the school if they have any concerns about their child's progress or development.

Parents or carers of a pupil on the SEND register will always be given the opportunity to provide information and express their views about the pupil's SEND and the support provided. They will be invited to participate in discussions and decisions about this support. They will be:

- Invited to termly meetings to review the provision that is in place for their child

- Asked to provide information about the impact of SEN support outside school and any changes in the pupil's needs
- Given the opportunity to share their concerns and, with school staff, agree their aspirations for the pupil
- Given an annual report on the pupil's progress

The school will take into account the views of the parent or carer in any decisions made about the pupil.

5.7 The pupil

Pupils will always be given the opportunity to provide information and express their views about their SEND and the support provided. They will be invited to participate in discussions and decisions about this support. This might involve the pupil:

- Explaining what their strengths and difficulties are
- Contributing to setting targets or outcomes
- Attending review meetings
- Giving feedback on the effectiveness of interventions

The pupil's views will be taken into account in making decisions that affect them, whenever possible.

6. SEN information report

The school publishes an SEN information report on its website, which sets out how this policy is implemented in the school.

The information report will be updated annually and as soon as possible after any changes to the information it contains.

7. Our approach to SEND support

7.1 Identifying pupils with SEND and assessing their needs

Edleston Primary School endeavours to identify additional needs as early as possible. The school will consider whether additional pastoral support and attention for pupils with SEND is required, alongside ensuring that any appropriate support for communication is in place.

Children with SEN are identified by one of the following routes all of which are part of the overall approach to monitoring progress of all pupils:

- Progress Meetings - The progress of every child is monitored at termly pupil progress meetings. When teachers identify an area where a pupil is making slow progress, they will target the pupil's area of weakness with differentiated, high-quality teaching. If progress does not improve, the teacher will raise the issue with the SENCO to have an initial discussion about whether this lack of progress may be due to a special educational need. Where necessary they will, in consultation with the pupil's parents or carers, consider consulting an external specialist. This may include progress in areas other than attainment, for example, wider development or social needs. Slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEN. Potential short-term causes of impact on behaviour or performance will be considered, such as a loss or bereavement. Staff will also take particular care in identifying and assessing SEN for pupils whose first language is not English.

- Class teachers are continually aware of children's learning. If they observe that a child, as recommended by the 2014 code of Practice, is making less than expected progress, given their age and individual circumstances, they will seek to identify the cause. This can be characterised by progress which:
 - is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline
 - fails to match or better the child's previous rate of progress
 - fails to close the attainment gap between the child and their peers
 - widens the attainment gap
- Parents sometimes ask us to look more closely at their child's learning. We take all parental requests seriously and investigate them. Frequently, the concern can be addressed by Quality First Teaching or some parental support. Otherwise, the child is placed at First Concerns or SEN Support on our register.

When deciding whether the pupil needs special educational provision, we will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. We will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

If a pupil is joining the school, and:

- Their previous setting has already identified that they have SEN
- They are known to external agencies
- They have an education, health and care plan (EHCP)

then the school will work in a multi-agency way to make sure we get relevant information before the pupil starts at school, so support can be put in place as early as possible.

The school will consider the pupil within the context of their home, culture and community and look carefully at all aspects of a pupil's performance in different subjects to establish whether the problems they have in the classroom are due to limitations in their command of English or arise from SEND.

7.2 Consulting and involving pupils and parents

The school will put the pupil and their parents at the heart of all decisions made about special educational provision. The class teacher will invite parents to a meeting to:

- Everyone develops a good understanding of the pupil's areas of strength and difficulty
- We take into account any concerns the parents have
- Everyone understands the agreed outcomes sought for the child
- Everyone is clear on what the next steps are

Notes of these early discussions will be added to the pupil's record and given to their parents.

We will formally notify parents if it is decided that a pupil will receive special educational provision.

7.3 The graduated approach to SEN support

Once a pupil has been identified as having SEN, we will take action to remove any barriers to learning, and put effective special educational provision in place. This support will be delivered through successive rounds of a 4-part cycle known as the graduated approach.

1. Assess

The pupil's class teacher and the SENCO will carry out a clear analysis of the pupil's needs. The views of the pupil and their parents will be taken into account. The school may also seek advice from external support services.

The assessment will be reviewed regularly to help make sure that the support in place is matched to the pupil's need. For many pupils, the most reliable way to identify needs is to observe the way they respond to an intervention.

2. Plan

In consultation with the parents and the pupil, the teacher and the SENCO will decide which adjustments, interventions and support will be put into place, the expected outcomes, and a clear date for review.

All staff who work with the pupil will be made aware of the pupil's needs, the outcomes sought, the support provided and any teaching strategies or approaches that are needed.

Parents will be fully aware of the planned support and interventions, and may be asked to reinforce or contribute to progress at home.

3. Do

The pupil's class teacher retains overall responsibility for their progress.

Where the plan involves group or 1-to-1 teaching away from the main class teacher, they still retain responsibility for the pupil. They will work closely with any teaching assistants or specialist staff involved, to plan and assess the impact of support and interventions and how they can be linked to classroom teaching.

The SENCO will support the teacher in further assessing the pupil's particular strengths and weaknesses, in problem solving and advising on how to implement support effectively.

4. Review

The effectiveness of the support and interventions and their impact on the pupil's progress will be reviewed in line with the agreed date.

We will evaluate the impact and quality of the support and interventions. This evaluation will be based on:

- The views of the parents and pupils
- The level of progress the pupil has made towards their outcomes
- The views of teaching staff who work with the pupil

The teacher and the SENCO will revise the outcomes and support in light of the pupil's progress and development, and in consultation with the pupil and their parents.

7.4 Levels of support

School-based SEN Support provision

Pupils receiving SEN provision will be placed on the school's SEND register. These pupils have needs that can be met by the school through the graduated approach. Where the pupil's needs cannot be adequately met with in-house expertise, staff will consider involving an external specialist as soon as possible.

The provision for these pupils is funded through the school's notional SEND budget.

On the census these pupils will be marked with the code K.

Education, health and care (EHC) plan

Pupils who need more support than is available through the school's SEN Support provision may be entitled to an EHC plan. The plan is a legal document that describes the needs of the pupil, the provision that will be put in place, and the outcomes sought.

The provision for these pupils will be funded from the school's notional SEND budget, and potentially from the LA (from the high-level needs funding block of the dedicated schools grant).

On the census these pupils will be marked with the code E.

Enhanced Mainstream SEND Provision – Evergreens

The school operates an Enhanced Mainstream SEND Provision known as Evergreens.

Evergreens is designed to provide additional support for pupils whose needs cannot be fully met through ordinarily available provision within a mainstream classroom.

The provision offers:

- Highly personalised learning approaches.
- Additional communication and interaction support.
- Support for sensory and regulation needs.
- Targeted interventions.
- Opportunities for integration within mainstream classes where appropriate.
- Close partnership working with parents, external agencies and the local authority.

Placement within Evergreens will follow regular reviews will be undertaken to ensure provision remains appropriate and effective.

Woodlands Inclusion Hub

The school operates an Inclusion Hub known as Woodlands.

Woodlands provides short-term and targeted support to pupils experiencing barriers to learning, attendance, emotional wellbeing or successful engagement in school life.

The Hub forms part of the school's graduated response and may provide:

- Emotional regulation support.
- Pastoral intervention.
- Short-term social and emotional support.
- Transition support.
- Reintegration support following periods of absence or difficulty.

The intention of Woodlands is to support pupils in accessing and succeeding within their mainstream class environment.

7.5 Evaluating the effectiveness of SEN provision

We evaluate the effectiveness of provision for pupils with SEN by:

- Tracking pupils' progress, including by using provision maps
- Carrying out the review stage of the graduated approach in every cycle of SEN support
- Using pupil questionnaires
- Monitoring by the SENCO
- Holding annual reviews for pupils with EHC plans
- Getting feedback from the pupil and their parents

Attendance and SEND

The school recognises that pupils with SEND are statistically more vulnerable to persistent absence.

Where attendance concerns arise, the school will work closely with families, external agencies and relevant professionals to identify barriers and provide appropriate support.

Attendance concerns will always be considered alongside pupils' SEND needs, medical needs and wellbeing.

8. Expertise and training of staff

Training will regularly be provided to teaching and support staff through sharing of expertise from within school or accessing training from local agencies such as Springfield Outreach, Sensory Processing Occupational Therapy Support Services, Cheshire East Autism Team or Speech and Language Therapy Services.

The headteacher and the SENCO will continuously monitor to identify any staff who have specific training needs and will incorporate this into the school's plan for continuous professional development.

Staff training may include autism, speech and language development, sensory processing, trauma-informed practice, emotional regulation, adaptive teaching, inclusive practice, attachment and SEMH needs.

9. Links with external professional agencies

The school recognises that it won't be able to meet all the needs of every pupil. Whenever necessary the school will work with external support services such as:

- Speech and language therapists
- Cheshire East Autism Team

- Specialist teachers or support services
- Educational psychologists
- Occupational therapists, speech and language therapists or physiotherapists
- General practitioners or paediatricians
- School nurses
- Child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS)
- Education welfare officers
- Social services

10. Admission and accessibility arrangements

The Admissions Policy is reviewed regularly by governors and reflects current statutory admissions requirements.

10.1 Admission arrangements

Our Admissions Policy was written with reference to and in consideration of the school's Disability Equality Scheme.

Assessment includes consideration of issues identified by the involvement of disabled children, staff and parents and any information the school holds on disabled children, staff and parents.

If a child has an education Health care Plan, naming a particular school, they are required to be admitted to that named school.

Governors reserve the right to offer an earlier place for a child with SEN if deemed necessary.

Should we receive more applications than places we have available, the place will be offered to the application that we receive first. All applications are sent to us from Cheshire East admissions. We will not accept applications directly from the applicant or family.

If there is a midyear application from a child with Special Educational (and/or medical) Needs, transferring from another school, it is the governors' policy to bring this application to the attention of the Admissions Committee for discussion before a place is allocated.

10.2 Accessibility arrangements

Our Accessibility arrangements are outlined in our Accessibility Plan. All our pupils have access to a broad and balanced curriculum through adaptations being made according to need. These include:

- Adaptations to the physical environment to enable disabled pupils to take better advantage of the education, benefits, facilities and services we provide.

- Curriculum Resource adaptations to meet special educational needs and known disabilities.
- Facilities used to help disabled pupils access your school, including the provision of auxiliary aids and services supported through the Cheshire Sensory Service.

➤11. Safeguarding

The school recognises that evidence shows pupils with SEND are at a greater risk of abuse and maltreatment, so will ensure that staff are aware that pupils with SEND:

- Have the potential to be disproportionately impacted by behaviours such as bullying.
- May face additional risks online, e.g. from online bullying, grooming and radicalisation.
- Are at greater risk of abuse, including child-on-child abuse, neglect, and sexual violence and harassment.

The school recognises that there are additional barriers to recognising abuse and neglect in this group of pupils. These barriers can include, but are not limited to:

- Assumptions that indicators of possible abuse such as behaviour, mood and injury relate to the pupil's condition without further exploration.
- These pupils being more prone to peer group isolation or bullying (including prejudice-based bullying) than other pupils.
- The potential for pupils with SEND or certain medical conditions being disproportionately impacted by behaviours such as bullying, without outwardly showing any signs.
- Communication barriers and difficulties in managing or reporting these challenges.
- A different cognitive understanding and being unable to understand the difference between fact or fiction in online content.

The headteacher and governing board will ensure that the school's Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy reflects the fact that these additional barriers can exist when identifying abuse. When using physical intervention and reasonable force in response to risks presented by incidents involving pupils with SEND, staff will have due regard for the procedures outlined in the school's Physical Intervention Policy.

Care will be taken by all staff, particularly those who work closely with pupils with SEND, to notice any changes in behaviour or mood, or any injuries, and these indicators will be investigated by the DSL in collaboration with the SENCO.

School staff will be particularly alert to the potential need for early help for pupils with SEND and additional needs.

The governing board and headteacher will ensure that pupils with SEND are taught about how to keep themselves and others safe including online. The school will ensure that teaching of safeguarding is tailored to the specific needs and vulnerabilities of pupils with SEND.

Any reports of abuse involving pupils with SEND will involve close liaison between the DSL and the SENCO.

Staff will remain alert to attendance concerns, child-on-child abuse, online risks, exploitation, mental health concerns and emerging safeguarding issues affecting pupils with SEND.

12. Complaints about SEND provision

Where parents have concerns about our school's SEND provision, they should first raise their concerns informally with the class teacher or SENCO. We will try to resolve the complaint informally in the first instance. If this does not resolve their concerns, parents are welcome to submit their complaint formally.

Formal complaints about SEND provision in our school should be made to the Headteacher in the first instance. They will be handled in line with the school's complaints policy.

If the parent or carer is not satisfied with the school's response, they can escalate the complaint.

To see a full explanation of suitable avenues for complaint, see pages 246 and 247 of the SEN Code of Practice.

To find out about disagreement resolution and mediation services in our local area, please contact Cheshire East Information Advice and Support (ceias@cheshireeast.gov.uk).

13. Monitoring and evaluation arrangements

13.1 Evaluating the effectiveness of the policy

We are constantly looking for ways to improve our SEND policy. We will do this by evaluating whether or not we are meeting our objectives set out in section 1.

We will evaluate how effective our SEND provision is with regards to:

- All staff's awareness of pupils with SEND at the start of the autumn term
- How early pupils are identified as having SEND
- Pupils' progress and attainment once they have been identified as having SEND
- Whether pupils with SEND feel safe, valued and included in the school community
- Comments and feedback from pupils and their parents

13.2 Monitoring the policy

This policy will be reviewed by the SENCO and Headteacher every year. It will also be updated when any new legislation, requirements or changes in procedure occur during the year.

It will be approved by the full governing board.
